PYTHIAN MEMORIAL.

On The Death of H. H. Cartland Which Occurred Last Friday.

The commit ee appointed by Greensboro Lodge, No. 80, Knights of Pythias, at its meeting on Monday night to prepare a memorial on the death of Mr H. H. Cartland, submit the following:

On Friday morning last, April 14, the rustle of the Death angel's wings was heard in our city, and Brother H. H. Cartland answered the summons to pass out into the mystic realm from which no Knight has ever returned to sit again in the earthly castle hall. He was a member of our order. He was not on'y a member of the order, but his life was a living exemplification of the principles of Pythian Knighthood. In his removal from earth this lodge has sustained a loss that is felt by the individual and collective membership.

Not only has our order been bereft of a brother and a generous friend; but the community at large, the city of Greensboro and the state of North Carolina has lost a loyal and a true citizen. A quiet, undemonstrative man, yet a man of whom it has been truly said: "He was everybody's friend."

We desire to yield, in perfect submission, to the will of Him who hath seemingly afflicted us in this dispensation. A man, a friend, a brother, has been taken. He was true in every walk of life. In his business he was just, among his friends always kind, gentle and consid rate, in his home loving and loved. To those who are most sadly bereft, his wife and children, we would point out his many shining virtues as rifts in the dark clould that now enshrouds their home.

It is the sense of this committee that this slight memorial be spread upon the records of our lodge, a copy furnished the family of our departed brother and also to our city papers for publication.

Resolutions of Respect.

Odd Fellows' Hall,
Greensboro, N. C., April 18, 1899.

In the death of Brother Herbert H. Cartland the whole community and state have sustained a severe loss, and especially will he be missed in our lodge, in which for so many years he has been a zealous member and faithful officer. He was courteous and obliging at all times, and had the love and respect of every Odd Fellow.

He was a man of the strictest integrity and of the highest sense of honor, and no stain has ever attached to his name.

Successful in business, he was ever willing to share his means with others, and no deserving appeal was ever made to him in vain.

He was true and faithful in all the relations of life as husband, father, guardian, employer, citizen, in business, as a member of many fraternal organizations, and as a Christian; therefore, be it

Resolved, by Buena Vista Lodge, No 21, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, that all the principal chairs in our lodge room be draped for thirty days, and that we express to the bereaved widow and fatherless children our heart-felt symrathy in their affliction by sending them a copy of these resolutions, and that it be spread upon our minutes as a mark of our respect for his memory.

OFFICERS, ROYAL ARCANUM.

Elected at Last Night's Meeting Next Meeting in Salisbury.

The Grand Council Royal Arcanum met again last night in the Odd Fellows hall. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

T. L. Greenwold, grand regent, Past A. M. Scales.
W. F. Rountree, grand vice-regent.
Jno. R. Erwin, grand orator.
C. M. Briggs, grand chaplain.
W. P. Wooten, grand warden.
J. Howell Way, grand secretary.
A. M. Powell, grand treasurer.
J. A. Brady, grand sentry.

The next annual meeting will be held in Salisbury. The meeting here was a most pleasant and encouraging one and will be long remembered by those who attended

The San Jose Scale.

J. Van Lindley left at noon today for Southern Pines to be present at a meeting of the supervisors of the state experiment station. They meet to discuss the San Jose Scale and to try to discover a cure. It will be remembered that Mr. Lindley's peach orchard was entirely destroyed by the scale a short while ago. Two hundred and fifty acres of peach trees were uprooted and burned. The orchard there has no connection whatever with the nursury at Pomona, except that Mr. Lindley is interested in both.

OUR COAST UNPROTECTED

By The Withdrawal Of Fourteen Thousand Regulars,

SENT TO RE-INFORCE GEN. OTIS

The American Commander In The Philippines Expects Decided Improvements Soon.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 20—Otis' call for more troops will be promptly answered. As soon as marine transportation can be secured fourteen thousand regulars will be hurried to Manila. This means the virtual cleaning out of all garrisons and batteries along the Atlantic seaboard, which are now principally in the hands of the Seventh artillery. These posts will be left in the hands of small detachments, but new recruits will be mustered in and instructed as early as possible, so that the seaboard will not be unprotected.

OTIS REPLIES.

Washington, April 20—Alger has received a reply to his inquiry of Otis yesterday whether the re-inforcement of fourteen thousand regulars, which are proposed to be sent to relieve the volunteers, will be a sufficient force for the successful prosecution of the campaign. Otis replies in the affirmative and estimates that a force of thirty thousand regulars should be sufficient to meet the conditions with which the army is confronted. The program of the movement of troops will be carried out therefore according to Otis' statement. The general adds that he expects very soon to be able to report a decided improvement in the Philippines.

ONE AMERICAN WOUNDED.

Manila, April 20—Eighteen American soldiers, while scouting under the command of a captain in the region north of Guiguinlo this morning, encountered two hundred Filipinos. A skirmish ensued in which one American was wounded.

APPALLING CYCLONE,

In Which Over Four Hundred Lives Were Lost.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Vancouver, B. C., April 20—Advices received from a steamer just arrived give details of the terrible hurricane on the Australian coast in March, previously reported, which cost 414 lives. One colored pearl diver reached dry land, with two women, after swimming four days. Many porpoises were found fifty feet on the beech, thrown up by the waves. Stones were imbedded in trees to the depth of six inches, and rocks weighting tons were thrown upon dry land. Two colored women swam ten hours with their children on their backs, but the children were dead when landed. The beeches at Queensland are strewn with dead fishes and birds.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Will England Be Able to Communicate With Us?

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, April 20—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes interviews with prominent persons interested in the Marionis system of telegraphy, in which they express belief that communication with the United States by means of the system will be practicable. This question, however, has not been taken up yet, as all the time has been devoted to experiments.

There is no intention of competing with land lines.

Fashionable Marriage.

By Cable to the Telegram

London, April 20—Westminster Abbey was filled today with a fashionable assemblage to witness the marriage of the daughter of the Earl of Roseberry to Henry White, secretary of the United States legation. Lord Roseberry gave the bride away. The Dean of Westminster performed the ceremony.

"THE SCHEME THAT FAILED."

An Excellent Entertainment Given at The Normal Last Night.

An entertainment was given last evening at the State Normal and Industrial College in compliment to the Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum now in session here, and to the citizens of Greensboro. The program was as follows:

PROGRAMME.

Part Song—"The Bees".....Chorus.

CAST.

Paul Jennings, a young New Yorker—B. Stafford.
Victor Craven, a young M. D.....R. Leach.
Edith Jennings, Paul's wife ...Katherine Rollins.
Fanny, his sister...Margaret Wescott
Mrs. Craven, Victor's mother..Laura Sanford.
Bridget, a servant of the Jennings.... Annie Beaman.

SYNOPSIS.

Act 1.—Plans are laid.
Song—"Annie Laurie,"
Miss Minnie Jamison.
Act 11.—Plans fail.
Song—"Go, Pretty Rose."
Semi-Chorus.
The Vestal Virgins.....Drill.

The singing of Miss Minnie Jamison delighted every one. Each heart recalled another name, as she sang "Annie Laurie." The audience regretted much that the pleasure of hearing her again was denied them, but the arrangement of the program did not admit of an encore.

To say that the affair was under the supervision of Mrs. Ben C. Sharp and Prof. Clarence Brown is an assurance of the excellence and the artistic taste that characterized the work done by the young ladies who took part in the entertainment.

ALBA HEYWOOD.

This Clever Comedian Performed at The Academy Last Night.

The crowd at the academy of music last night to see and hear Alba Heywood, was small. But the irrepressible and irresistible humor of the comedian seemed not affected in the least. As a versatile character we have never seen him excelled.

There were only four players in the company, but they are all good ones.

The performance, which consisted of impersonations, monologue, dialogue, violin, piano and vocal solos, etc, was very good. And Mr. Heywood's parody on Edgar Allan Poe's "Raven" was exceedingly fine.

Laughing Treat Tonight.

"The Merry Maid," the comedy of all comedies, and probably the most successful ever presented by the Paint and Powder Club of Wilmington, N. C., will be the attraction at the academy of music tonight, and a great laughing treat is in store for all lovers of farcical comedy. The individual members of the caste presenting "The Merry Maid" have been selected with great care, thereby accomplishing the sole design of the piece keeping the audience in a roar of laughter from beginning to end. The meritorious and finished curtain raiser "Comedy and Tragedy" precedes "The Merry Maid"; and the more announcement of the coming of Wilmington's dramatic talent is all that is necessary to insure a crowded house.

The company includes Misses Taylor, Cotchett, McPherson, and Lee and Messrs Wright, Cowan, Robertson, Vick and Cotchet; and the tour is under the personal direction of Manager Schloss of the Wilmington Opera House.

Meeting at The Baptist Church.

Mr. Love preached an excellent sermon last night from the text 'Christ the power of God and the Wisdom of God." At the close of the service several confessed Christ and others asked for prayer. With one or two more services Mr. Love will finish his work in Greensboro, but the results will last through eternity. Let all who desire to hear this consecrated man of God, attend the service tonight and tomorrow night.

Important Called Meeting.

Every member of the Daughters of the Confederacy is earnestly requested to meet at the home of Mrs. R. F. Dalton at 11 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) morning, to settle a matter of vital importance to chapter. Applications for membership will be gladly received and enrolled.

Order of president.

Greensboro Doors To Scotland.

While other Greensboro enterprises are shipping their goods to all parts of the world the Guilford Lumber Company is determined to stay in the ring. They received an order this morning from Glasgow, Scotland, for two dozen of their best make of doors. The purchasers stated that it was a sample order and the Guilford company may be excused for hoping that the samples will create a demand for their goods. Secretary and Treasurer Mendenhall is all smiles and the goods will be shipped as soon as possible.

AN IMPORTANT RESCISSION.

Tobacco Ruling Recently Made By The Department, Revoked.

SPENCER ADAMS AT WASHINGTON

The Ex-Judge Has Been Selected By Pritchard As Referee In Postoffice Appointments.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, D. C., April 20—The commissioner of internal revenue will rescind the ruling recently made by the department which required tobacco to be packed before offering it for sale. This action was taken at the request of a number of tobacco men, who were represented by Representative Swanson, of Virginia, Senator Martin and Messrs. Acree and Cobb. The gentlemen were much pleased with the result of their visit to the commissioner of internal revenue, and it is expected that the ruling will be revoked without delay. Congressman Swanson, in speaking of the ruling, said that its revocation will be hailed with delight by tobacco men throughout the South, but more especially in Virginia and North Carolina, which are the states most closely effected by the decision. While in Washington Mr. Swanson stopped at the Hotel Raleigh.

Mr. Swanson was seen at his apartments at the Raleigh Tuesday night. He is freely mentioned as the probable Democratic candidate for governor of the state, and has hosts of friends who would be pleased to see him in the governor's chair. The Congressman is of the opinion that Senator Martin will be re-elected to the senate from Virginia.

Senator Martin was also seen the other day, but further than stating his confidence in his re-election to the United States senate he declined to be interviewed. The Senator stated that his business in Washington at this time is purely in connection with the matter before the commissioner of the internal revenue, and other business in which the state is interested, and has no reference to the political siuation in the state. The Senator would not discuss the question of reform in the methods of nominating United States senators.

Judge Spencer B. Adams is in Wasington, having arrived here from Greensboro, North Carolina, yesterday morning. It is announced that Judge Adams has been selected by Senator Pritchard as referee in postoffice appointments for the fifth North Carolina district, and that hereafter his endorsement will be necessary for applicants to secure who aspire to appointments as fourth class postmasters in that district. This is done for the purpose, it is said, of relieving Senator Pritchard from the necessity of examining into the qualifications of applicants. While in Washington the Judge is stopping at the National Hotel. Yesterday he visited the postoffice department. The appointment of referees in post ffice departments while somewhat novel is not without precedence, for there are several instances where senators and congressmen have sought to relieve themselves of the burden of attending to these small appointments.

Ex-Congressman Trigg, of Virginia, was in the city the other day. He is opposed to the plan of changing the method for tde nomination of senatorial candidates. From interviews with leading Virginia people coming to Washington, while, of course the proposed change meets with the favor of some of the most prominent men in Virginia politics, including Congressman Jones, and Attorney General Montague, the majority of them incline to the belief that the proposed change will not be effected for some time to come. The movement has not attracted the attention it might have done, owing largely to the fact that there is practically no opposition to the re-election of Senator Martin.

Quite a number of changes were made in the treasury department Tuesday. Among the promotions were a number of southern clerks, including several from South Carolina and Georgia.

The site of postoffice at Fleming, Catawba county, has been moved one half mile south.

Among North Carolina people in Washington is Mr. M. Wilson, of Raleigh, who is here for a few days attending to personal matters in which he is interested. He is registered at the Metropolitan hotel.

General Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, who is in the city has accepted an invitation to attend the Confederate reunion at Charleston which is to be held next month beginning May 10th.

Dr. H. C. True, of the department of agriculture, has just returned to Washington from a visit to Clemson College, where he went, it is said, to examine into some agricultural experiments being made there.

The Fishblate-Katz Co. want you to visit their establishment and look at their blue Serge suits at $10.00.

HEARING EVIDENCE.

Commissioners to Award Damages to The Southern Railway.

The commissioners appointed to award benefits and damages in the case of Postal Telegraph Co. vs. Southern Railway Co., began the hearing of the case this morning. The courts have decided that the Postal may come in over the Southern's property and the commissioners are to decide the amount of damages due the railway company. The examination of witnesses was begun this morning and it will probably be late tomorrow before the case is finished, probably later.

The Postal is represented by Col. McIntosh, of Richmond, Virginia, assisted by A. L. Brooks, of this city, while Major Styles, of Richmond, and F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, represented the railway company. Messrs. J. M. Walker, A. M. Scales, and Jas. A. Hodgin are the commissioners.

The Western Union has been fighting (in the name of the Southern Railway Company) the Postal, and has succeeded in delaying the latter company a year—keeping out competition. The Postal is now on the way, however, and when the commissioners fix the damages the case will be finished.

Remember, Firemen!

That on Monday evening, the 24th inst., at 8 o'clock, the annual meeting of the fire department will be held in the hall of steamer company No. 1. Recommendation for chief will be made at this meeting, and matters pertaining to the tournament will be discussed. By order of

W. R. Pleasants, Chief.
E. L. Clarke, Sec'y.

Twenty miles east of Frying Pan Shoals is a capsized vessel. It is feared, says the Wilmington Messenger that the crew is lost.

A WAR OF EXTERMINATION.

The telegraphic and cable news which is sent out from Manila in regard to the American-Philippine war, cannot be wholly relied upon. A press censor has been established by the United States government whose business it is to pass upon all news sent out and he is instructed to severely eliminate all disgusting features. A dispatch touching upon the real status of affairs upon the Islands, quickly receives his condemnation, and the blue pencil gets in its work.

But there is one way by which the American people are obtaining an insight into the methods employed by the United States in forcing the insurgents to submission, namely, through the medium of private letters written home by some of Uncle Sam's soldiers, and information collected from this source is "letting the cat out of the bag."

The New York Evening Post quotes from a letter received from Charles Brenner, of Minneapolis, Kan.:

Company I. had taken a few prisoners and stopped. The colonel ordered them up into line time after time, and finally sent Capt. Bishop back to start them. There occurred the hardest sight I ever saw. They had four prisoners and didn't know what to do with them. They asked Capt. Bishop what to do and he said, 'You know the orders,' and four natives fell dead.

A correspondent of the New York Sun thus graphically describes some of the fighting in the Malolos campaign:

Occasionally a Filipino would fall forward, apparently dead, wait until he was fairly under the heels of the Americans, and then foolishly rise and attempt to gain safety. To shoot a man at six feet range with a springfield rifle is a hard thing to do, but the orders were to let no insurgent live, and off would go the whole side of his head, or he would fall with a wound in his abdomen large enough to drop a potato through.

A private in the Washington regiment writes home describing the first hard struggle with Aguinaldo's troops:

The next day after the battle we went over the battlefield in squads burying the dead niggers. I saw seventy-four buried in one hole. We would rake them up in a pile, dig a hole and dump them in, throw a little dirt over them, and go ahead. In the path of the Washington regiment and battery D of the sixth artillery, there were 1,008 dead niggers, and a great many wounded. We burned all their houses. I don't know how many men women and children the Tennessee boys did kill. One company of the Tennessee boys was sent into headquarters with thirty prisoners, and got there with about a hundred chickens and no prisoners.

All over the country there is a muttering of discontent at the war of extermination that is being waged against that liberty-loving people over the sea. Because Patrick Henry said "Give me liberty or give me death," his name lives in history and song and story Because these people will not surrender their homes, their lands, their liberties and themselves to the merciless invaders, they are massacred in almost cold blood.

It is hard to believe that this grand and glorious nation that is set up as an example to the Christian and civilized countries of the earth, should stoop to barbarities which savor of the dark ages. But such is really the case, and this administration will be swept from the control of the government some day by such a storm of indignation as has not been aroused since the foundations of the republic were laid.

We rejoice that Mr. J. P. Caldwell, the able editor of the Charlotte Observer, continues to improve in his illness.

The Norfolk Landmark is authority for the statement that the Samoans are all Presbyterians. Judging from King Mataafa's pictures in the papers we think there must be some mistake. The Presbyterians about here all wear clothes.—Staunton News.

This only reminds us of the remark of a Stokes county gentleman recently. He has the habit of using pompous language upon almost all occasions, sometimes injudiciously. In view of the fact that a large number of the ministers and candidates for the ministry sent to work in the mission field of Stokes, by the Presbyterian church, wore glasses for various causes, the brother remarked: "The Presbyterians, as a race, seem to be blind."

The same gentleman, speaking of an incident of a canine passing his dwelling with a tin can tied to its tail, said: "It passed my house with a great speed of rapidity."

It is far less a misfortune that Pennsylvania should have but one representative in the United States Senate than that it should be represented by such an unscrupulous politician as Quay.

ANGELS WITH RED CHEEKS.

There is a Difference of Opinion as To Whether They Blush.

Mr. Editor:—If what has been said by the great delineator of human character is true (and I have never heard it doubted) that a little brief authority makes some men cut up such antics before high Heaven that the angels actually blush; then we must have had some very red-cheek angels of late. It strikes me that the guardian angels of this city have red cheeks now, for several reasons. I will state but one at present.

It appears to me that the antics of the chairman of the board of health of Guilford county for the last two months has been calculated to tinge the cheek of a modest angel a little. Now it don't often make much difference who the county physician is (for they are all alike in some respects) and all he has to do is to look after the poor house, the inmates of the jail and the convicts who haven't much more business out of the ground than a mole. But, we city folks sometimes get scared, and when we do, we ought to have a county physician that could use that supreme power that he imagines he is clothed with, with right smart of common sense.

I suppose the scare of the country physician (I don't think anybody else was much scared) cost the city about $1,000, and it ought not to have cost over $25 There is no man in this city who ever had smallpox—and very few sensible ones who never had it—believes there has been any smallpox here. But if there had been, a rope stretched around the premises and a guard stationed would have been sufficient. It has been here before, within one hundred yards of the court house, and nobody took it outside of the enclosure.

There is a party at this time being detained at the pest house at the expense of the city who, Dr. Broadnax says, has a well defined case of chicken pox, and does not resemble smallpox at all. And Dr. Ledbetter admits that the weight of evidence is against smallpox, but for some unknown reason does not release him. But there are so many ways for us to make fools of ourselves that it is a mighty hard matter for us to miss them all. X.

The Oak Ridge vs. Guilford game came off today, which resulted in a victory for the former. The game throughout was characterized by brilliant plays, but the visitors proved too much for the Quakers.

The Fox brothers did the star playing for Guilford, while the superb team work for Oak Ridge won the game for the day.

Morehead on a Boom.

Morehead Station has a telegraph office, has applied for a depot and postoffice and is forging ahead in the direction of a village. Messrs. Jordan, Sinclair and McDonald have bought several thousand acres of land in that vicinity and are at work building houses and settling New England farmers there. Two houses are now in course of construction, Mr. A. F. Brooks, of this city having the contract. Two families of thrifty people have settled there and others will come. Let the good work continue. Let's have an epidemic of it.

Reed and Strout.

Thomas B. Reed served in the navy during the civil war, and in 1865 he returned to Portland to practice law.

As a young lawyer he displayed the same qualities of ability and aggressiveness which have been a conspicuous characteristic of his political life. One of the strongest men at the Portland bar at the time was A. A. Strout.

Before beginning the trial of a suit it was Strout's habit to inquire of every juror as to the state of his health and impress each with the idea that the lawyer was solicitous of that juror's personal welfare.

Reed and Strout were constantly antagonizing each other, though they were very good friends. In nearly every case of importance Strout and Reed were on opposite sides.

It was annoying, indeed, for the suave Strout to hear Reed drawl out before the opening of a case:

"Well, your honor, Brother Strout having finished his morning task of shaking hands with the jury, we may now, I hope, proceed with the business of the court."—Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

Hardly Worth the Agony.

An artist of more than national fame chose the most beautiful girl in his town for a mate. Before they were married he said: "My dear, you are almost perfect. You lack but two things—your mouth is a little too small, and you are a little too thin. I wish that before we are married you would correct those two and become absolute perfection." For six months the poor girl wore a brass fixture in her mouth to stretch her jaw and ate fattening food. Then she was married. To an intimate friend she has since confessed that the agony of that six months' jaw stretching was not worth all she since has enjoyed as the wife of a distinguished artist.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Who Whips?

The clergyman's little son was telling the small son of a parishioner of the dreadful fights which he and his sister indulged in.

"You don't mean to say that ministers' children fight?" replied the horrified little layman.

"Oh, yes."

"Who whips?"

"Mamma." — Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Chained Books.

The finest known collection of chained books is that in Hereford cathedral. It includes about 2,000 volumes, arranged in five bookcases, of which not less than 1,500 are secured by chains three or four feet long, each with a swivel in the center. A small collection of chained books, long forgotten, has just come to light in the vestry of the church at Sleaford, Lincolnshire.

Tuscan boys, like most others, delight in flying kites, but custom does not permit them to do so except during Lent. If they flew in the face of this custom, their kites would be torn up by the other boys.

In 1877 Falcon island, in the Friendly group, began as a smoking shoal. Ten years later it was a volcanic island about 300 feet high and over 1½ miles long. Now it is disappearing.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children. —W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Ex-Govenor John Lee Carroll, of Maryland, is among the delegates of the National Society of the Sons of the Revolution, which meets in Denver, Col., today.

If you have piles CURE them. No use undergoing horrible operations that simply remove the results of the disease without disturbing the disease itself. Place your confidence in DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It has never failed to cure OTHERS. It will not fail to cure YOU. Howard Gardner.

Nitro-glycerine was used by burglars to wreck the vault in the Haydinville (Mass.) Savings Bank, but they got nothing.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Havel Salve, a thoroughly anti-septic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

Hoax—"He's a great smoker." Joax—"I never saw him indulge in the weed." Hoax—"Perhaps not; he's a Chicago pork packer."

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

A REINCARNATED DOG.

He Hadn't Lost His Human Traits In the Process.

"You can't tell me there is nothing in the theory of reincarnation," remarked a traveling man, "for I know there is. I was down in Florida recently, and in St. Augustine I saw a snob dog—an out and out snob. His name is Towser, and he is just a common yellow dog, lives in the street and belongs to no one.
"In the summer, when no wealthy northern people are in the town, he plays with all the middle class children and dogs and will greet patronizingly the middle class men and women who know him. But in the winter, as soon as the season begins, he attaches himself to some rich New York family, loafs in their yard, tags their footsteps or carriages all about the city, attends them to church and home again and so far as he is able makes himself one of them. For his meals he has been forced to resort to the back yards of a plain, good woman, who pities him and feeds him regularly. He is friendly with her at his eating hours, but never so far forgets himself as to wag his tail at her on the street or when he is with more pretentious people.
"When society functions take place in St. Augustine, there is Towser. Golf matches, afternoon teas, picnics or boating parties, all are attended by him with most conventional regularity. He never greets any ordinary acquaintance when thus socially engaged and has even been known not to eat for several days when a fashionable wedding was on his mind. With the swell dogs of St. Augustine Towser never has any rows, having, no doubt, studied the politic art of being agreeable, but with commoner cuts he is irritable and defensive. That dog has been human in his time, and I'd give a penny to know who he was."—Indianapolis Journal.

AMONG THE CANNIBALS.

A Traveler's Experience With the Man Eaters of West Africa.

Mr. P. A. McCann has had 19 years' actual residence in west Africa. Mr. McCann's seven years' trading and residence with the cannibal tribes of the French Gaboon probably form the most exciting part of his experiences. He got friendly with them and thoroughly studied their habits and customs. They quite believed that the white men ate white men as they themselves eat their fellow blacks. A big chief offered Mr. McCann the smoked thigh of a native. This was considered a gracious act. To refuse it would be unfriendly. Mr. McCann was in a dilemma.
But he feigned illness, said he was not eating just then. The chief eventually put the matter off good naturedly by saying he supposed the white man preferred white man to eat instead of black man. "The Mpongwes," said Mr. McCann, "are in ferocious and pugnacious qualities second to no other tribe in Africa. Their villages mostly consist of a single street from 600 to 1,500 yards long, on each side of which are the houses. In these houses they cook, eat and sleep and keep their store of provisions, the chief of which is smoked game and smoked human flesh, hung up to the rafters.
"Although ferocious and quarrelsome to a degree, they are very industrious. They show considerable skill in the manufacture of pottery, and the designs of their cooking pots, water jars, tobacco pipes and palm wine bottles are extremely artistic. In ironwork they are also skillful workers. Although they kill game for food, they much prefer human meat to any other."—London Globe.

Where the Crabs Come In.
When a school of menhaden make their way into a bay, they may stay for days swimming around in one region. Larger fishes, including perhaps some sharks, feed upon them there. From such feeding there are more or less fragments that sink down through the water, and the various crabs and other crustaceans come scuttling from all parts of the bay to get them. It may be that the tide carries some of the litter about, or perhaps the crabs and other creatures smell it, as bluefish scent the bait that is used in chumming, but when a school of menhaden are preyed upon at the surface all the crabs in the bay congregate on the mud below to catch the crumbs that fall.—New York Sun.

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. Harry & Belk Brothers',
Key to the Situation

Is This; One might as well try to lift themselves in a basket as to try to undersell us. Cheapest Store on Earth is the combination that unlocks the pocketbooks of the masses. Cash has been and is still the axle grease of our business. With it we scoop in panic merchants and manufacturers of their entire stocks, often at less than the cost of making. This is the reason we are always throwing on the market Shoes, Clothing, Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, Hats and Notions, etc., at such astoneishing low prices. Rushed with business you see from a whirlwind of bargains that is constantly being driven in all the time, Listen: Silks 15c up; $1 quality 50c; checked dimities 2½c; good calico 2½c; ginghams 2½c; checks 5c; plain lawns 2½c; 3 pair 1 dies hose 5c; ladies shirt waists 18c up; yard wide organdie 5c; good quality colored organdie 7½c, cheap at 10c; white laundered shirts 25c; work shirts 10c; men's socks, good quality 5c; pants 25c; ladies button shoes 35c; 21 yards Barker bleaching, $1. Everything cheap. Prices cut in two in the middle and set on fire at both ends. If you are digging for dollars, come right along and pick them up on the surface at

Notice Extraordinary!

MRS. A. RUTH,

THE expert demonstrator of "HER MAJESTY'S CORSET," will fill a special one week's engagement at our store, commencing April 17th and ending April 22d. MRS. RUTH will be glad to explain the merits of this celebrated Corset and give fittings, thus illustrating its superiority over others.
Engagements can be made with MRS. RUTH by mail or telegraph. We desire to be distinctly understood that ladies will not be expected to purchase a Corset after a fitting is made, unless they so desire.

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET"
is not the cheapest, but the best

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET" in fit, wear and comfort is unsurpassed. It is worn by well dressed women. Endorsed by physicians and modistes.

J. N. Ingram,
530 South Elm

To the Citizens of Greensboro and the Public at Large:

We respectfully announce that Messrs. Boone & Bogart, owners and proprietors of the Greensboro Pressing Club, are doing our work in the way of alterations, etc., and that same is giving perfect satisfaction. We gladly recommend these young men to all who may need their services, and with the assurance that you will get value received. The Pressing Club's force is composed of expert tailors—every individual an artist in his line.

A trial will convince you further than our statement. Give them your work. Very Respectfully,

Rankin Chisholm, Stroud & Rees

You Talk

About "time and tide" not waiting for you, you don't want them to wait. What you want to do is to cast yourself upon the crest of the wave and move along with the procession.

Don't do like you see everybody else do, but keep your eye on the people who have proven themselves worthy of your confidence, and if you can't steer your own boat, hook on to them—they will carry you safely through the struggling, surging masses and land you high and dry at our dock, where we can fit you out in an elegant suit of Spring Clothes at so moderate a price as to leave you sufficient money to make other necessary purchases. You will find us on the corner, No. 3 0 So. Elm.

Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees.
CLOTHIERS,

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

W. M. Love went to Red Springs today.

A. L. Brooks returned to Putnam at noon.

Walter Crafton, of Reidsville, is in the city today.

Hon. Fab. H. Busbee returned to Raleigh at noon.

John B. Wright went to Elon College at noon today.

Jonathan Robinson, of Reidsville, was in the city this morning.

S. A. Kerr is keeping up with the procession in having the front of his store neatly re-painted.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hadley, of Siler City, returned home today, after spending a day with friends here.

Miss Jessie Womble returned at noon today to her home in Goldston, after spending a few days here with friends.

Mrs L. M. Michaux and children, of Goldsboro, arrived last evening to spend several days visiting relatives in the city.

Col. W. H. Osborn, a director of the penitentiary, went to Raleigh today on business connected with that institution.

Miss Kate Duffy, agent of the Atlantic & Yadkin at Currie, returned to that place today, after spending a few days with her parents here.

The young man who intends to go forth "in all the glaring impotence of dress" should see the elegant clothes offered by Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees.

J. M. Cunningham yesterday purchased one of the Summit Avenue Building Company's lots on the avenue and will erect a handsome residence thereon.

Shrier advertises Queen quality Oxfords in today's paper. A pair of these sterling Oxfords must be worn to be appreciated. He has them in all styles, sizes and widths.

The announcement of J. M. Hendrix & Co. today is worth your attention. They use language in their ad writing which means something and they always mean what they say.

The city republican executive committee met in the court house last night. After a short discussion of the political situation the committee adjourned to meet again tomorrow (Friday) night.

Lindau, with his own personal skill and taste, has decorated one of his front windows with fancy boxes of Whitman's candies. As well as always keeping the best Lindau always displays his goods in the best manner.

The city Republican executive committee is hereby called to meet at the court house Friday, April 21, at 8 o'clock p. m. Members of county precinct committees are earnestly requested to be present. Benj M. Bridges, chairman city committee.

The family of Capt. S. G. Witherspoon, an engineer on the Southern, who have resided in their handsome residence on Asheboro street, will shortly move to Salisbury to live. Capt. Witherspoon's stopping point is Spencer and the move is made that he may be at home more. Their many friends here will regret their departure exceedingly.

Ex-Judge Bynum Honored.

Ex-Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., of this city, who so ably assisted in the successful prosecution of the Asheville bank wreckers a few weeks ago, there displayed his legal ability, and has been asked by the government to appear as special counsel in some bank trials at St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Bynum is one of North Carolina's brightest legal lights, and the Telegram, together with his many friends and admirers, is pleased to see him honored. He will probably accept the offer of the government. May he continue to rise until he reaches the highest round in the ladder of his profession.

The Fishblate-Katz Co. are displaying the latest shapes in Shoble, Harrington and Stetson hats Call and see them.

Close at Sundown.

The city registration books will close at sundown this evening, and all who have not registered before that time will have lost their right to vote at the city election. At 3 o'clock there were 998 white and 385 colored names on the book.

NEW CITY DIRECTORY

Will Soon Be Issued To The Subscribers.

Mr. Wm. M. Kersh, manager of the Maloney Directory Co., who is getting out the new city directory, informs us that the canvass is almost completed and that the work will be issued in or about two weeks. He desires to express his thanks for the courtesy extended to him and his men by the citizens of Greensboro in giving information which he says has been done cordially with very few exceptions. Mr. Kersh has a few more choice advertising spaces to offer which he will close out to those desiring them in the next few days.

The Fishblate-Katz Co. are making a special run on high grade men's and youths' suits this week at $10.00.

D. BENDHEIM & SONS

220 South Elm Street

Every day the growing crowd gives evidence of their appreciation of our new idea of progressive merchandising and we find a most pleasing result from our new method. Instead of figuring how to make the largest profits, we find better results from figuring how to use greater purchases, and day by day our business increases, because in creating the outlet we are enabled to dispose of larger quantities—and in many instances the manufacturer's entire stock in a few days' time. We don't mean by this that we can give you one dollar's worth of goods for five cents, but we do mean that we often buy such stocks at a great sacrifice and we give our customers the benefit. The manufacturers come to us because they know that no quantity is too large and no quality too fine for us to handle,

Every table will be laden with bright new bargains in desirable white goods, wash goods, dress goods, silks, ribbons, laces, embroideries, etc., etc., for this week's sale.
